IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION CASE NO. Plaintiff(s) VS. WAIVER OF INITIAL ATTORNEYS CONFERENCE. & REQUEST FOR SCHEDULING OF AN INITIAL PRETRIAL Defendant(s). CONFERENCE Local Rule 16.1(A) provides that an Initial Attorneys Conference ("IAC") is to be held within fifteen (15) days of the filing of the last required responsive pleading or as otherwise ordered by the court. Within five (5) days after the IAC, counsel shall sign and file the Certification and Report of Initial Attorneys Conference... In accordance with Rule 29, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, counsel for the respective parties hereby stipulate and confirm that they have conferred and agree that an IAC is not necessary in this particular case, that there are no material disagreements as to: (1) whether the case is suitable for reference to Alternative Dispute Resolution; (2) the type and extent of discovery anticipated; (3) the setting of a discovery cut-off date; (4) the scheduling of a deadline for filing motions; and (5) determining dates of anticipated hearings and trial. Counsel further certify to the court that any other planning issues can be resolved promptly at the Initial Pretrial Conference. By filing this stipulation, the parties request that an Initial Pretrial Conference be calendared as soon as possible. This the _____ day of _____ 1999.
